

Endorsement of Manjit Sohi's candidacy for Abbotsford City Council

I have known Manjit Sohi personally for many years and have enjoyed working with him professionally and politically. He is a man of integrity and honour. He is hard working and diligent in everything he does and he has considerable experience in matters especially relevant to being a City councilor. Having worked as a member of municipal staff (both in Abbotsford and elsewhere) and been in business in the private sector dealing with construction, engineering and development matters, he brings a knowledgeable and common sense, practical approach to City issues and problems which would serve Abbotsford well.

I am pleased to endorse his candidacy for a position on Abbotsford Council in the September 25, 2021 bi-election.
